SYNOPSIS:

On 04-20-11, A white male adult walked into the Wells Fargo Bank and placed bag on the counter in front of the bank teller. He demanded she open the bottom drawer and to give him the money from inside the drawer. While she was complying with his demand, the suspect placed his hand into his pocket as if he had a gun. The suspect then stepped to the next bank teller and made the same demand as the first teller. The suspect received an undisclosed amount of money from the teller and fled on foot. NO WEAPON was seen. Deputies set up a perimeter and found evidence from the robbery but were unable to locate the suspect. The suspect is described as a white male adult, wearing a blonde wig, mid 30's, 6' 00", 200 - 250 lbs.
